DON MAGUIRE TRADES ORE SAMPLES FOR BRIDE'S TROUSSEAU BY ERROR

There is a certain young lady in Richmond, Cache county—her name does not matter, for, unless plans went awry, she changed it last night. But this young lady in Richmond has a right to say that Don Maguire, the noted mineralogist and mining man, is a mean stunid old thing so there.

TOOK UP NOTE.—Secretary of State J.
T. Hammond has taken up the last note which was outstanding against the state, it was for the amount of $10,000, the last payment on the sum which was borrowed Sept. 10 for the purpose of meeting state expenses.

FILED HIS BOND.—W. W. Wilson, member-elect of the board of county commissioners, was the first of those who were elected at the recent election to file its official bond with the county recorder. The bond is for the sum of $5,000, and Arthur J. Cushing and Charles C. Crapo are sureties.

M.; Arthur Brown, S. W.; W. J. Barrette, J. W.; Herman Hill, reasurer; A. J. Lowe, secretary; Samuel Paul, trustee for three years. Of the loregolng, Hill and Lowe were re-elected. The installation will take place in about the days. pulled the wire away from the con-nection with the trolley with his toe, breaking the current, and held it while the bystander got a monkey wrench out of the wagon, and Krantz then twisted the wire in two. This LILLIAN HAS GONE.-Lillian Palme dillilan HAS GONE.—Lillian Palmer, e young girl charged with using abusive nguage toward Leo Bowers, will not be led in the city court, at least not at is time. When arraigned on Wednesday e asked time in which to plead, and sterday afternoon was set fo, the hears. She was released after much pleads on her own recognizance. Yesterday then the case was called, Lillian was not ere, and investigation elicited the fact at she had taken the 10:30 train for den on Thursday night. Judge Diehl used a bench warrant for her, and she il be returned here for trial, not only the first charge, but on that of intrigibility.

PERKINS HAS RESIGNED.

But Will Remain With Board of Public Works Till First of Year.

The resignation of P. O. Perkins as clerk of the board of public works was submitted to the board at its meeting yesterday and was accepted. It was requested by Mr. Perkins that the resignation take effect at the convenience of the board at the resignation take effect at the convenience of the board at the resignation take effect at the convenience of the board at the resignation take effect at the convenience of the board of Public Works as ampultated last evening. Recovery is believed to be assured. Howard is at a loss to account for the accident.

"I was walking along with a candle in one hand and the stick of powder and caps in the other," he said. "The first thing I knew there was an explosion, but how it happened I couldn't tell." CAUGHT THE THIEF.—Through clever work on the part of Detective Gillespie, John Edwards, who was robbed of a watch and $200 in money on Oct. 7, has recovered the watch, which he valued at $55, and the thief, whose name is Daniel Hurley, is now in jail. Hurley was arrested by Gillispie yesterday and admitted the theft. Edwards, it seems, was drinking in the Ping Pong saloon on the day in question, and Hurley, who was acting as a porter, saw his chance and "strong-armed" Edwards, 'practically taking the money away from him by force. He spent the money and pawned the watch, which was recovered yesterday by the officer.

SHOT DEAD BY A GUARD.

Deserter Under Arrest Attempted to

Escape. Spokane, Wash., Dec. 12.—Private William B. Broomall, an unassigned recruit to the regular army, was shot dead this morning during an effort to escape. Broomall deserted from the Presidio, but surrendered here, and was under guard at Fort Wright. This morning he was sent out to work on the grounds. He knocked down his guard and started to run. The guard uard and started to run. The guard redered him to halt, and fired a warning shot. As Broomall continued to run, he was shot through the back, and fell dying. He will be buried here. He had enlisted in Philadelphia.

Instead of planting the fry in the public streams, it is said that he made preparations for future sport for himself and friends in his own little ponds. He gave some to his friends, however, who followed the example of Mr. Seely in disposing of the state property. The commissioners' action was reported to Warden Sharp, and an official investigation at once begun.

He wrote to the mayor of Mt. Pleasant, and at the same time to the county clerk, asking that the particulars of the transaction be reported to him, but he has received no reply to the in quiry.

At a meeting of the council at Mt. Pleasant it was stated openly that the misappropriation had been made, and the citizens are said to be indignant. Seely is said to have offered, by way of explanation, that he was away at the time of the arrival of the fish and left instructions for their distri-bution, which were not carried out. Warden Sharp stated last night that if the report was found to be true, he would compel Mr. Seely either to re-move the fish from his own ponds and those of his friends and place then
